TRAINING OBTAINED

I have obtained extensive training in domestic violence and sexual assault that has not only included conferences and classes but on-site visits to agencies. My Training has included tactics and strategies for working with victims of domestic violence and sexual assault and developing these cases, with practice interviewing techniques that include reality-based scenarios utilizing actors and facilitators to guide the interviewing techniques. I have also received training on related violent crimes such as firearms crimes, stalking and the use of the national instant background check. I have also been trained on utilizing the U-Visa and T-Visa program for immigrant victims and witnesses of domestic violence and sexual assault. Additional specialized training has included the California Peace Officer and Standards Training course: Officer as an expert witness for DV cases.
