EVAWI is dedicated to improving criminal justice responses to sexual assault, domestic violence, and other gender-based crimes. To advance this mission, EVAWI holds annual conferences supported by registration fees, to educate multidisciplinary teams of law enforcement, prosecutors, health care professionals, victim advocates, researchers, and others. In 2022, EVAWI held its first conference with both in-person and virtual attendees. A total of 2,108 professionals attended, completing 242,160 training hours, an incredible success given the continued uncertainty created by the ongoing pandemic. This means professionals from across the country and around the world now have the tools to improve the quality of response and investigation at every stage in the process.

In the first year of the program, 12 agency subscriptions and 44 individual subscriptions were purchased, and 951 professionals attended live and recorded webinars, enhancing their skills in a wide range of areas. This number is expected to increase as more practitioners use webinar subscriptions to continue improving responses to sexual assault, domestic violence, and other gender-based crimes.

It is a valuable trauma-informed training tool for health care professionals, as well as law enforcement, prosecutors, forensic scientists, emergency medical services, victim advocates, and others. In 2022 the Virtual Practicum drew a total of 1,137 users who logged 22,172 hours of training. This translates to increased access to justice for survivors with better evidence collection.

Form 990 - Organization's Mission

End Violence Against Women International (EVAWI) inspires and educates those who respond to gender-based violence, equipping them with the knowledge and tools they need to support victims and hold perpetrators accountable. We promote victim-centered multi-disciplinary collaboration, which strengthens the response of the criminal justice system, other professionals, allies, and the general public - making communities safer.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - All Other Accomplishments

Start by Believing (SBB) is a global campaign transforming the way society responds to sexual assault victims, making it easier and safer to seek help. In 2022, EVAWI provided hands-on assistance for local communities to launch and sustain campaigns that spread the message, "We believe and support survivors." At least 700 SBB campaigns have now prepared professionals and loved ones to react supportively to survivors across the US and in 25 countries. But what happens next? SEEK THEN SPEAK offers a way for survivors and support people to gather information, explore options, and take action - including reporting to police, if they choose. This innovative tool increases access for survivors to pursue justice and healing on their own terms.

Comprehensive Victim Interviewing (CVI) is a new program EVAWI launched in 2022, also supported by registration fees. This intensive 2-day virtual training in trauma informed interviewing and investigation is led by veteran law enforcement investigators and other leading national experts.

The Financial Review Committee establishes the compensation of EVAWI's Chief Executive Officer (CEO). To establish executive compensation, the Financial Review Committee uses comparable data generated by GuideStar and Charity Navigator's formula for non-profit organizations as well as several other resources. Charity Navigator is a well-known research organization that surveys non-profit organizations across the country and creates a standard for the industry. The formula for CEO compensation is based on several factors, including geographic region, size, and mission of the organization, as well as annual revenues and performance. EVAWI is classified as a small non-profit since annual expenses are less than $3.5 million.

When a change in executive compensation is under consideration, the Financial Committee makes a recommendation to the Board of Directors based on researching GuideStar and CEO Compensation for national organizations engaging in similar work, as well Charity Navigator and other factors such as performance. The Board of Directors votes to approve or reject the recommendation. The Minutes for the Board meeting are filed in accordance with EVAWI's bylaws, documenting deliberations and the basis for a decision.

Financial Policy manual. In 2022, two new personnel policies were written, and six personnel policies were updated. Five financial policies were also updated. All new and updated policies were approved by the Board of Directors. In addition, the Financial Review Committee reviews the entire Financial Policy Manual every three years. The Committee last reviewed all 47 financial policies in 2021. The next review will be completed in 2024. The Executive Committee reviews the Personnel Manual every three years as well. In 2022, the Executive Committee reviewed all 89 personnel policies to ensure that they remain up-to-date and to confirm that Board and staff members are complying with EVAWI policies and procedures. In 2022 it was decided to change the name of the manual to the EVAWI Policies and Procedures Manual. The manual will be reviewed again in 2025. To promote transparency, many of EVAWI's policies can be found on the website under About Us and Disclosures (e.g., Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, Discrimination and Harassment, Whistleblower Reporting and Response, Board of Directors and Staff Conflict or Duality of Interest).
